Royal Hawaiian Groin Replacement Project Postponed Until Fall of 2020

The Royal Hawaiian Groin located between the Sheraton Waikiki and the Royal Hawaiian hotel, was originally built in 1927 and is planned to be replaced with a new rock structure. The original Spring construction schedule for the new groin has been postponed until the Fall of 2020. A primary concern is the landward portion of the existing groin which holds the existing sand beach in place, is severely undermined, cracked and bowing. Its failure would result in the destabilization and loss of the sandy shoreline located to the east of the groin.

The Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR) in partnership with the Waikiki Beach Special Improvement District Association (WBSIDA), is planning to replace the existing Royal Hawaiian groin with an engineered rock rubble-mound groin. The primary project objective is to maintain the approximate beach width of the 2012 Waikiki Beach Maintenance shoreline nourishment project. No enlargement of the beach or additional sand is proposed as part of this project.

PROJECT COSTS:

1. Estimated costs of $2,500,000 for construction.
2. Cost share of 50% up to $1,250,000 from the WBSIDA.

EXPECTED START DATE:

Pending final state contracts, we are anticipating a construction start date of Fall of 2020.

BEACH MAINTENANCE:

A subsequent follow up beach maintenance project is being planned in the Winter/Spring, of 2021. This is being planned through a public/private partnership with the DLNR and the WBSIDA for up to 12,000 cubic yards of sand pumped in from immediately offshore, similar to the 2012 project. This is roughly half of the volume of sand delivered in the 2012 beach maintenance project.

Christmas Day King Tides

On Christmas day, 2019 we experienced a near all-time record water level at the Honolulu tide gauge (unofficial-pending NOAA verification) with a water level of 3.366 feet above Mean Lower Low Water (MLLW). This was due to a combination of seasonal “King tides,” (~2.3ft) a regional episodic water level anomaly (+10 inches) plus a minor Kona storm (+3-4 inches) that all coincided in the early morning hours on December, 25th, 2019. Luckily, the peak of the tide was before dawn and before the heavy rain later than day and did not interfere with normal beach use. The water levels Christmas morning were potentially record setting with what looks like could be (preliminarily) the 2nd highest recorded water level in the Honolulu Tide gauge history, nearly reaching the 1992 Hurricane Iniki levels by less than 1 inch. The WBSIDSA is constantly monitoring water levels for seasonal and regional outlooks and predictions of unusual water levels. Our next round of seasonal King Tides is expected in the summer months of June-August so stayed tuned for more updates.

3rd Annual Visitor Public Safety Conference

WHAT: 3rd Annual Visitor Public Safety Conference

WHERE: Moana Surfrider, a Westin Resort & Spa

WHEN: March 16, 2020
7:30 a.m. registration and breakfast
8 a.m. - 12 noon: Program

COST: Free

In partnership with Hawai'i Tourism Authority, the Waikīkī Improvement Association, the Waikīkī

Business Improvement District Association, and the Hawai'i Hotel Visitor Industry Security Association, HLTA is pleased to announce our 3rd annual Visitor Public Safety Conference. This year's slate of distinguished speakers will again feature Honolulu Police Chief Susan Ballard and will also include United States Attorney for the District of Hawai'i Kenji Price, Attorney General of Hawai'i Clare Connors, and Acting City Prosecutor Dwight Nadamoto.

In years past, we have enjoyed a great deal of success with this event as it brings together various public safety stakeholders in a way that allows them to talk story and really drill down to the heart of issues that affect our community. In the past, takeaways from this event have led to major headway in areas including the late night cabaret establishments in Waikiki, the need for more surveillance cameras throughout Waikīkī, and major funding assistance for HPD's homelessness efforts in Chinatown.

Our program this year will focus on a variety of subjects including sex trafficking, gun laws, prosecutorial methods and standards, as well as mental health and the homeless.

26TH ANNUAL HONOLULU FESTIVAL CANCELLED

TO HELP PREVENT THE POTENTIAL TRANSMISSION OF THE CORONAVIRUS IN HAWAII

HONOLULU – The Honolulu Festival Foundation announced that the 26th annual Honolulu Festival, which had performances and events scheduled from Friday, March 6, through Sunday, March 8, has been cancelled to help prevent the potential transmission of the coronavirus in Hawaii.

Foundation officials made the decision to cancel the popular festival in response to recommendations made by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, State of Hawaii, and Japan's government that precautions be taken to prevent the spread of the coronavirus, including the cancellation or postponement of large gatherings of people.

Hiroyuki "Keith" Kitagawa, president of the Honolulu Festival Foundation, stated, "We apologize for the disappointment our decision to cancel this year's Honolulu Festival causes for anyone who was looking forward to enjoying this annual celebration of cultural performances and the arts."

"There are currently no cases of the coronavirus in Hawaii. However, considering the precautions and recommendations being made by government health officials to prevent the spread of the coronavirus, cancelling this year's Honolulu Festival is the responsible action to help protect the public's safety."

26TH ANNUAL HONOLULU FESTIVAL CANCELLED TO HELP PREVENT THE POTENTIAL TRANSMISSION OF THE CORONAVIRUS IN HAWAII, Continued...

The Honolulu Festival was expected to draw thousands of visitors from throughout the Pacific Rim, including more than 100 groups who would share their culture through music, dance and arts in free performances at the Hawaii Convention Center, Ala Moana Center, International Market Place and Waikiki Beach Walk. Many cultural groups from Hawaii would also perform.

All events scheduled for the Honolulu Festival are canceled, including the following:

Friday, March 6

- Educational School Tours at the Hawaii Convention Center (private event by invitation only)
- Friendship Gala at the Hawaii Convention Center (private event by invitation only)

Saturday, March 7, and Sunday, March 8

- Free, public cultural performances, arts and events at the Hawaii Convention Center, Ala Moana Center, International Market Place and Waikiki Beach Walk

Sunday, March 8

- Waikiki Grand Parade on Kalakaua Avenue
- Nagaoka Fireworks Show over Waikiki Beach

The goal of the annual Honolulu Festival is to celebrate the cultural and ethnic ties of people from Hawaii and nations worldwide. Honolulu Festival activities are free and open to the public with support provided by the Honolulu Festival Foundation, the Consulate General of Japan in Honolulu, the State of Hawaii, the City and County of Honolulu, the Hawaii Tourism Authority through its Community Enrichment Program, and a range of corporate sponsors. The theme for this year's Honolulu Festival was "Making the World a Better Place for Our Future, from the Pacific to the World."

The Honolulu Festival Foundation supports educational and cultural programs for the benefit of Hawaii's schools, children, and the community-at-large through public outreach and charitable efforts.

Robert Pace of Southern Glazer's Wine & Spirits will share his expertise in the art of appreciating and enjoying the prestigious champagnes using all of the senses – from the sense of hearing, sight, smell, taste, and touch. Sato's food will be enhanced by all the aromas and subtle flavors of the champagnes paired with each course.

The cost of Champagne PAIRINGS at the Beachhouse at the Moana is $150 per person, plus tax and gratuity. Seating is limited and reservations are required. Kama'āina will receive a 15 percent discount. Call the Dining Desk at 808-921-4600 to reserve your seat. Complimentary four-hour valet parking is available.

Moana's PAIRINGS program couples a winemaker, brew master or master distiller with the cuisine of Chef Colin Sato, who advanced to the finals of Marriott International's rigorous Masters of the Craft Culinary Competition in 2018. The next PAIRINGS event is scheduled June 12 featuring beer pairings. Additional 2020 events are scheduled – August 14 featuring sake pairings and October 9 featuring wine pairings. Dates, menus and prices are subject to change.

THE ROYAL HAWAIIAN, A LUXURY COLLECTION TO DEBUT ALL-NEW 'AHA 'ĀINA LŪ'AU

HONOLULU – February 7, 2020 – The highly acclaimed 'Aha 'Āina Lū'au, known for its accurate, authentic depiction of Hawai'i's history and royalty, is being revamped and is set to debut an all-new look at the majestic The Royal Hawaiian, a Luxury Collection Resort in April. The first show is scheduled for Thursday, April 2 at the hotel's Coconut Grove, on sacred land which was once the summer home of Queen Ka'ahumanu, King Kamehameha the Great's favorite wife.

In Old Hawai'i, the Hawaiian people would gather to celebrate momentous occasions; these gatherings were called 'Aha 'Āina, which means to gather for a meal. The lū'au experience begins with a variety of interactive cultural activities presented by Tihati Productions, the premier entertainment company in the islands. Some of the activities include tapa/kapa (barkcloth) making, lauhala mat weaving, as well as poi pounding.

And just like in ancient times, the celebration was centered around the feast. Royal Hawaiian Executive Chef Colin Hazama and his extraordinary team of culinarians are introducing a lavish, plantation-inspired menu for the new 'Aha 'Āina Lū'au. Each item was thoughtfully created to reflect their roots from the fields, land and sea around the islands. Among some of the selections are pipikaula tomato salad using Ho Farms' tomatoes, Okinawan sweet potato salad, ahi poke, Ali'i mushroom and tomato poke, and fresh poi and lomi lomi salmon. From the land, there is vegan yellow curry, vegetable fried rice, huli huli (barbecue) chicken, kalbi-style flank steak, steamed fresh catch from Pier 38 and an action station featuring house-cured and smoked kalua pork. Desserts reflect their roots in the sweet cane fields of old Hawaii such as chocolate caramel macadamia tart, pineapple upside down cake and several items featuring items from the Royal Hawaiian Bakery such as Tutu's Coco-Bread and Royal Bakery Sweet Bread Pudding.

After the feast, the show takes centerstage, where guests are taken on a journey through time starting with the birth of Waikīkī and Helumoa, the legendary playground of Hawaiian royalty where the resort now stands. The show introduces key members of the Kamehameha Dynasty, the history of the storied Pink Palace of the Pacific and its important role in making Waikīkī a dream destination, as well as other show-stopping numbers like a pulsating Tahitian dance, colorful hula, an ukulele virtuoso and an exhilarating Samoan fireknife dance.

“As stewards of this important parcel of land, it gives us great honor and privilege to share the history and culture of Hawai‘i with our visitors,” said General Manager Tomo Kuriyama. “The reinvigorated ‘Aha ‘Āina Lū‘au is the perfect showcase for The Royal Hawaiian’s past, present and future.”

The new version of the show will be held three times a week on Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with updated pricing starting at just $75 for the show only; standard seating costs $149 per adult and $109 for children between the ages of 5 and 12; premium seating costs $179 for adults and $129 for children. A welcome cocktail and an additional beverage are included; tax will be added. Guests staying at The Royal Hawaiian – or any of three hotels within its complex (Sheraton Waikiki, Sheraton Princess Kaiulani and Moana Surfrider, A Westin Resort & Spa) – receive $20 off premium and standard seating. HALEKULANI GALLERY – Hawaii’s Women Artists Reflect on 100 Years of Suffrage
February 13, 2020 – April 2020

In 1920, the 19th Amendment to the US Constitution granted American women the right to vote. This right, also known as women’s suffrage, ended a century of protest. 2020 marks the 100th anniversary of women’s suffrage. The Halekulani Gallery, in conjunction with the Friends of the Hawaii State Art Museum, presents five of Hawaii’s acclaimed women artists’ reflection on suffrage. Visit the works of Reem Bassous, Sally French, Pegge Hopper, Deborah Gottheil Nehmad, and Mary Mitsuda.

La Mer at Halekulani receives
Five Diamond AAA Restaurant Award for 30th Consecutive Year

La Mer, Hawaii’s most celebrated fine dining restaurant, has been awarded the Five Diamond Award by AAA for the 30th consecutive year. It remains the longest consecutively ranked AAA Five Diamond restaurant across the islands. In addition, La Mer remains the only restaurant in Hawaii to be awarded a Five Star designation by Forbes Travel Guide, making it the only AAA Five Diamond and Forbes Five Star restaurant in Hawaii. CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Halekulani Living TV: featured clip – Foraged Flora

Our multimedia platform connects guests with the arts, style, food, and people of Hawaii with programming focused on the art of living well. This month, we feature clip “Foraged Flora,” featuring a Honolulu couple bringing people closer to nature by sharing flowers grown in their backyard atop Tantalus. To view this clip, please visit: halekulaniliving.tv/watch/foraged-flora/

Living TV consists of three programs:

- “The Art of Living” (celebrating individuals in constant pursuit of mastery in their art forms)
- “Halekulani Film Selections” (a curation of the best independent films, presented by Hawaii International Film Festival – HIFF)
- “Our partners” (unique arts and culture through stories collected from Halekulani’s partners and friends)

ROYAL HAWAIIAN HOSTS LĀ KEIKI DAY, A CHILDREN’S DAY CELEBRATION

Calling all keiki! On Saturday, March 7, Royal Hawaiian Center is treating all the kids to a full day of festivities with our Lā Keiki Day celebration! From 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., visit The Royal Grove for a variety of games, keiki crafts, live entertainment, and special appearances by some of your keiki’s favorite movie characters.

All morning long, families are invited to join volunteers from Kaimuki High School for a variety of games including bottle ring toss, bean bag toss, and more. Kaimuki High School’s Hospitality Academy will also lead hands-on cultural activities including etching sheets and the construction of paper frames. Guests can also enjoy balloon art with Balloon Monsoon and a live performance by the Tonga Sisters.

At 11:00 a.m., special guests from Storybook Entertainment Hawai‘i will make a highly anticipated appearance for free photos in The Royal Grove, followed by a live performance by JUKE.

In addition to Lā Keiki Day, a special Royal ‘Āina Market featuring locally made and designed products will be held in The Royal Grove from 3:00 to 9:00 p.m. While there, enjoy ongoing live entertainment with Chigasaki Hula Festival performances at 3:30 p.m. and hula kahiko by Hālau Hula O Maiki beginning at 5:00 p.m.

Join Royal Hawaiian Center in celebrating keiki from around the world at this year’s Lā Keiki Day celebration!

STEP INTO SPRING IN STYLE

You'll find the latest fashion trends at Royal Hawaiian Center's shops and boutiques.

Salvatore Ferragamo (Building B, Levels 1 and 2) launched Viva, a new shoe style that boldly modernizes its iconic Vara bow, originally created by Fiamma Ferragamo and introduced in 1979. Connecting the footsteps of Salvatore Ferragamo's past, present, and future, the Viva is featured alongside its illustrious and still sought-after forebearer, the Vara. Available in two styles—classic and ruffled, in two heel heights—mid and low, and in a range of colors and fabrications designed to be as diverse and multi-faceted as the tastes of modern women.

Guys will be inspired by the Men's Spring collection at Fendi (Building C, Levels 1 and 2), which celebrates the relationship between man and nature through fashion craftsmanship at its finest. The earthy, muted palette is enhanced through natural materials of silk, wool, leather and suede, as well as the "Botanics for Fendi" print and the geometric-floral patterns of this season's collection. The workwear pieces are crafted to be weightless and fresh through strategically-placed openings, and also feature functional and spacious removable pockets zippered into place. High-tops and trainers developed in collaboration with Moonstar, along with leather sandals and gloves echo the overall earth-inspired mood.

Jewelry from Harry Winston (Building B, Levels 1 and 2) and Tiffany & Co. (Building A, Levels 1, 2, and 3) were in the spotlight as celebrities took to the red carpet during Hollywood's annual awards season. Charlize Theron and Gal Gadot donned radiant Tiffany & Co. diamonds at the Academy Awards, while Harry Winston adorned Jennifer Lopez, Reese Witherspoon, and Jennifer Garner for the Screen Actors Guild Awards and Regina King, Julia Louis-Dreyfus, and Mark Ruffalo for the Oscars. Visit our jewelry salons to take home your own piece of Hollywood's finest.

COME ONE, COME ALL TO THE WAIKIKĪ FOOD HALL!

Royal Hawaiian Center’s newest dining venue, The Waikiki Food Hall (Building C, Level 3), celebrates its grand opening on Saturday, March 7! Open daily from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. and featuring eight unique culinary concepts, you’ll find something to suit your every craving from breakfast to late night.

Pork Tamago Onigiri (POTAMA)—Okinawa’s famous Potama Spam made-to-order musubi arrives in Waikikī, featuring a delicious variety of fillings.

Milk—Japan’s first specialty store for fresh cream ice cream brings their unique whipped soft serve to Waikikī. The shop will feature their popular milky and fresh cream soft ice cream flavors, as well as a new, exclusive Hawaiian flavor.

Five Star Shrimp—Well-known for their original food truck near Waikikī Beach, the garlic shrimp specialists serve a local Hawaiian favorite to kamā’ina and malihini alike.

Honolulu Burger Co.—Stop by the latest location for handcrafted burgers made from free-range, grass-feed beef and locally grown produce.

JTRRD Café—The café serves fruit and superfood smoothies that have been described as mouthwatering works of art.

Surfer’s Café—The new concept serves coffee and drinks to start your beach day, as well as surf themed craft items by local artists.

Meataly Boys—The grill-shop serves Hawai’i-grown meats including high-quality steaks, rib roasts, and huli huli chicken, in addition to local produce.

Tap Bar—The casual island bar specializing in local craft beers and artisanal cocktails takes center court at the Waikikī Food Hall.

WAIKĪKĪ IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

We are a cross-section of business, government and the community; our members care about the future of this special place - Waikīkī.

For more than 40 years, the Waikiki Improvement Association has remained true to its objective: to improve, enrich and beautify Waikīkī for the benefit of residents and visitors alike and to promote conditions conducive to the economic and cultural good and for the betterment of the entire community.

HAWAIIAN DIACRITICAL MARKS

Waikīkī Improvement Association recognizes the use of diacritical marks (i.e., glottal stop (‘), macron (ā) in place names of Hawai‘i, such as Waikīkī and Kalākaua Avenue and will include them whenever possible. We also respect the individual use (or not) of these markings for names of organizations and businesses.

There will also be times when we may not have a chance to add or change the markings in all of the articles submitted and when that happens, e kala mai.
